

BURTON JAMES

A photograph of a modern interior space. A curved, tufted sofa in a light green fabric is positioned against a wall with vertical wood paneling. In front of the sofa is a round, light-colored wooden table with a thick, natural wood base. On the table are two small white bowls and a plate. The sofa has a plaid ottoman in shades of green and brown. A large window with a black frame looks out onto a lush green forest. A framed painting of a landscape hangs on the wall to the left of the window. A white chandelier is visible above the window.
